

Sloan Payne-Rutter

Sloan Payne-Rutter has hosted the nationally syndicated Public Television series, Paint! Paint! Paint! since 2000 and has produced and hosted her newest series, Paint, Paper & Crafts June 2005. These magazine formatted shows demonstrate the “you-can-do-it” creative painting projects for novices and advanced artists and home decorators. Whether you want to learn to paint beautiful landscapes, decorate your furniture, stencil a design, sketch a portrait of your child or decorate your walls with murals and faux finishes, Sloan and her guests have the answers to your painting questions.

Sloan co-hosts with her mother, Vicki Payne, another series, For Your Home on Public Television & The Create Channel and Handmade Gifts Workshop on HGTV’s DIY network. Sloan is a frequent guest on HGTV and The Discovery Channel.

Her love of painting is apparent through the energy and enthusiasm she puts into every show. Sloan’s experiences as the mother of a young child and a new homeowner have inspired several special Paint! Paint! Paint! segments as well as becoming the author of her new book, Paint Paint Paint.

An experienced craft instructor and lecturer, she has appeared at the Glass Extravaganza, The Southern Women’s Show Tour, National Hardware Show, and the North Carolina Furnishings Festival.
